"The Art of Murder"

by Philip blue owl Hooser

In 1975, the art world bids a sad adieu to a famous Kansas City painter. Rushing to the funeral is a rogues gallery of art lovers, art students, art collectors . . . and a con artist. And in the midst of all the mourning, a murder is committed on the train! Is someone being drawn into an abstract plot? Or is it a frame-up?
